

Rules and Guidelines

The following are a list of rules and guidelines for the Apostolic Crusaders Youth Camps. We ask that you make copies of this and go over these with your youth a few weeks prior to Youth Camp so they will be able to plan properly for Youth Camp.

Dress Code

We are a holiness organization and this standard will be honored at Youth Camp.

Apostolic dress for male and female will be enforced.

- No sleeveless shirts/blouses of any kind.
- No see through clothing of any kind. (including arms)
- Boy's pants should fit; not "sag" or be too tight.
- Girl's skirts and dresses will be below the knee length. (seated) Splits in skirts will be below the knee.
- Shirts and blouses when un-tucked will be long enough to cover the stomach with arms raised above the head. (as in praying)
- No excessive jewelry will be worn.
- No shorts, skorts, or mini skirts allowed at any time.
- Clothing worn to bed must be worn in the dorm only, not outside.
- No pajama pants worn to any service or during sports.
- Sports and Recreational clothing must fit the above criteria.
 - No white wind-pants or solid white shirts during sports. (Sweat creates the problem)

Addition Rules & Guidelines

- Gospel music will be the only music played or allowed on the camp grounds.
- NO alcoholic beverage, tobacco, or illegal drugs allowed.
- Campers must respect ALL monitors, not just the one's from their home church.
- Rules will be covered in our orientation meetings held on the 1st day of each camp.
